

Peria Landcare Day

Networking and Inspiring positive community action

Sunday 6 October 10 am - 3 pm

at Bush Fairy Dairy - 1195 Oruru Road, Peria (near Fern Flat turnoff)

MORNING PRESENTATIONS 10 am - 12.30 All welcome

10 am Wild kiwi in Peria - Lesley Baigent

Our local populations and what they are up to How kiwi live in our bush, their routines

10.30 am Stream and catchment care - Lester Bridson, NRC

State of our local streams and catchments Supporting fresh water fauna species
Streams as vectors for weeds Sedimentation is key issue in our catchment

11 am Weeds to watch out for and what to do - Doug Foster, NRC

Priorities in our area eg ginger, privet, willow Control options available - outlier and infestation strategies

11.30 am Pest Control options - Mike Knight, NRC

Rats Mustelids Feral cats Possums What NRC offers

12 - 12.30 Kaitiakitanga in action

Honeymoon Valley Landcare group 5 mins

Doubtless Bay Landcare group 5 mins

QEII Trust Native Reserves - Greg Blunden

Lunch Refreshments & food available to buy, or bring your own

AFTERNOON DEMONSTRATIONS 1- 3 pm

Kiwi and Native birds tent Lesley Baigent, Jaden Lewis, Bernie Buhler - Dept of Conservation

Birds as indicators of our native bush health Native birds in Peria list
"Pet Care Code for dogs and cats" when living in Peria bush environment
Listen to kiwi and bird calls, watch local footage Signs available for landowners
FNDC Animal Management - info on what to do with roaming dogs, cats, cattle

Water tent Lester Bridson - Northland Regional Council

"Clean Streams" NRC Water catchment maps A4 Resources Whitebait Connection programme

Weed action tent Doug Foster NRC

Plant identification info Demonstrating "cutnpaste" on privet and ginger, willow "drill and frill"
Climbing weeds eg Jasmine - what to do What is available from NRC? "Northland Native trees" NRC

Pest action tent Mike Knight NRC, Steve Allan

Traps and how to set them - Mike Knight Feral cat SA traps made by Steve Allan.

Landcare tent Honeymoon Valley Landcare Bernard Coogan, Shayne Waldron
Doubtless Bay Landcare Max Guhl, Stephen Tansey

hosted by honeymoonvalleylandcare@gmail.com Contact Yvonne 09 4085588. 027 6999063